Launcelot Granger, Born in England, came to America prior to 1640 and lived in Ipswich, Mass.

Returned to Eng. to settle his mother's estate, coming back to America and after marrying he settled on Kent's Island near by Newbury (Old Town) Mass. He must have been well supplied with substantial means for he married the daughter of a very strict Puritan, Joanna Adams, Jan. 4. 1654 and began housekeeping, Kent's Island, in a 2 story brick lined, 48x22 house of the better class in the Colony, and whose foundation is still to be seen. He lived here until 1674 and all his children, 11, were born in this home. He then moved to Suffield Conn. where records show allotments of land to him and his sons. He held many public offices, and it was said he was wounded in King Philip's War. Died & buried Suffield, Sept 3 1693.

Chart of Roger Granger's descendants - collected, arranged and drawn by H.H. Granger M.D. No. 69 of South Weymouth Mass Jan. 1, 1907.
